NOLAN URGES IPSWICH PEOPLE TO MAKE PETROL PRICING SUBMISSION

The Member for Ipswich Rachel Nolan today called for Ipswich people to come forward with their views on petrol prices.

Ms Nolan made her call as a member of the all-party Impact of Petrol Pricing Select Committee - recently formed by request of the Premier to address the effects of high fuel prices on consumers and businesses across Queensland and to look into alternatives.

“We’re looking for input from people on tax alternatives, competition in the market and in particular, practical ways we can cut down on petrol usage,” Ms Nolan said.

Ms Nolan said she was also urging the committee to have public hearings in the area so Ipswich people can have their say.

Submissions close on November 11 2005 and more information can be obtained by going online to www.parliament.qld.gov.au/petrol or by calling the Ipswich Electorate Office on 3202 3452.
