Nominations open for Queensland Heritage Awards 2008

Ipswich's heritage buildings can be nominated for the National Trust's 2008 Heritage Awards said Member for Ipswich Ms Rachel Nolan MP.

The National Trust and the Queensland Heritage Council dedicate these awards to everyone in the community who contributes to the conservation and enjoyment of Queensland's heritage.

"Ipswich is well placed to celebrate our cultural heritage through these awards", said Ms Nolan.

"We are very fortunate to have so many beautiful homes and buildings that have been carefully and lovingly preserved and renovated. This is an opportunity for Ipswich to celebrate the contribution members of our community make to Ipswich's unique streetscape.

The categories include all aspects of cultural heritage work from conservation planning, research, education, all types of physical conservation works on structures or places, as well as interpretation or presentation."

Judging falls into the following categories:

1. Queensland Heritage Council Awards – all works undertaken to a place that is in the Queensland Heritage Register;
2. Bendigo Bank Heritage Awards – all cultural heritage projects undertaken by local government authorities, commercial interests or individuals; and the
3. National Trust Community Awards – for voluntary work undertaken by individuals or organisations in Queensland in the fields of history or cultural heritage.

"I would urge anyone in our community who has preserved and restored part of our cultural heritage, to enter these awards", added Ms Nolan.

Nomination forms are available at www.nationaltrustqld.org or from the National Trust office on 3229 1788.

Nominations close 11 July 2008.
