STATE GOVERNMENT GRANTS MORE THAN HALF A MILLION DOLLARS TO GIRLS' GRAMMAR

A State Government grant totalling $530,206 has been awarded to Ipswich Girls' Grammar School.

The grants are in three parts –

1. $492,500 for removal and replacement of asbestos in a number of small areas around the school including ceilings, walls and soft fittings
2. $7,706 for shade in the middle school court yard and prep / Year 1 sandpit, as well as paving in the prep area
3. $30,000 for wireless access points, weather proof boxes, network points and power supply

The grants are provided under the Tomorrow's Schools Infrastructure Program of which 21% of total funds available are provided to non-State schools for maintenance works.
