Competition Winner and Healthy, Happy Kids

Member for Ipswich Rachel Nolan today met, at the Bindarra Child Care Centre, one of the winners of her Design a Christmas Card Competition with this year's theme of "What does Christmas in Ipswich look like for your family?".

"17 month old Amelia was one of three winners, taking out the Kindy & Day Care category. Her artwork is now being printed on to the back of my calendar and will be distributed to homes throughout the electorate over the coming weeks.

"The other two category winners, a Prep student at Bethany Lutheran School and a grade 3 student at Sacred Heart Primary School, will also have their artwork printed onto the back of the calendars, with all three each receiving a $50 voucher from ArtTime Supplies" said Ms Nolan

"There were over a hundred and fifty entries and it is always a pleasant, though difficult, task to select the winners – they were all fabulous," Ms Nolan said.

Whilst at Bindarra Child Care Centre, Ms Nolan handed out Health, happy kids resources packs which are part of the Toward Q2: Tomorrow's Queensland and developed by the Department of Communities, Queensland Health and the Department of Education, Training and the Arts as part of the government's Early Years Health and Wellbeing Program.

The pack provides practical information to parents and carers on meeting the health and wellbeing needs of their children.
