ENROL NOW TO HAVE YOUR SAY IN STATE ELECTION

27 February 2009

Member for Ipswich Rachel Nolan is urging locals to ensure they are properly enrolled to vote in the upcoming state election.

The electoral roll for the March 21 election closes at 5pm tomorrow (Saturday).

People can check their enrolment by going to the Electoral Commission's specially prepared website www.queenslandvotes.com.au

New enrolments and changes can be made by visiting the Australian Electoral Commission office in the Hayden Building, South Street Ipswich by 5pm today or tomorrow (Saturday). Changes require presentation of a drivers' license or some other form of ID.

"Elections are the most direct way of having your say," Ms Nolan said.

"This one will be crucial to the future of Queensland so Ipswich people should make sure their voices are heard."
