$122,034 in subsidy funds for local schools

Member for Ipswich and Minister for Transport Rachel Nolan MP today announced that three Ipswich non-state schools will benefit from $122,034 in funds under the Queensland Government's External Infrastructure Subsidy Scheme.

"This program significantly eases the costs associated with infrastructure projects at eligible non-state schools such as headworks and sewer charges," said Ms Nolan.

The following funding has been allocated:

School	Project	Approved subsidy
Ipswich Grammar School	Headworks charges	$41,495
Ipswich Girls' Grammar School	Variation on previously approved subsidy of $23,644 for headworks charges due to additional council charges	$74,233
Sacred Heart School	Variation on previously approved subsidy of $3,418 for water headworks and sewer charges due to additional council charges	$5,856

"This is another example of the Bligh Government supporting Ipswich schools and the school environment of our local children" Ms Nolan said.
