$811,714 in funds for Home and Community Care services in Ipswich

Member for Ipswich and Minister for Transport, Rachel Nolan MP announced that $811,714 in funding has been approved for Ipswich organisations providing Home and Community Care (HACC) services.

This funding is part of the $36 million in additional funding for improved delivery of HACC services across the state.

The following organisations will receive funding to deliver basic support and maintenance services to more Queenslanders and their carers. It will not only support people to remain in their homes but will also allow them to enjoy a better quality of life among family and friends.

Organisation or service	Amount $
Blue Care Ipswich	$417,867.00
Co-ordinating Organisation for the Disabled in Ipswich (CODI)	$137,489.00
Home Maintenance – HACC Ipswich	$17,640.00
Home Visiting and Support Service/emergency alarm service	$231,158.00
Luke's Place	$7,560.00

“These groups provide an essential service to the Ipswich community and these funds will help them to continue to improve the lives of many,” Ms Nolan said.
